Melbourne Acadamy Sunshine ZINE 2013

“It’s the sense of touch. In any real city, you walk, you know? You brush past people, people bump into you. [Here] nobody touches you. We’re always behind this metal and glass. I think we miss that touch so much, that we crash into each other, just so we can feel something”. CRASH Paul Haggis 2005

The purpose of this ZINE is to inspire positivity in and about Youth Culture rather than the negativity we, and the rest of the world are so used to seeing, and hearing.

We hope that by reading this ZINE, filled with our personal struggles and ideas, that you may gain a more positive understanding of young people and Youth Culture.

Looking for hope

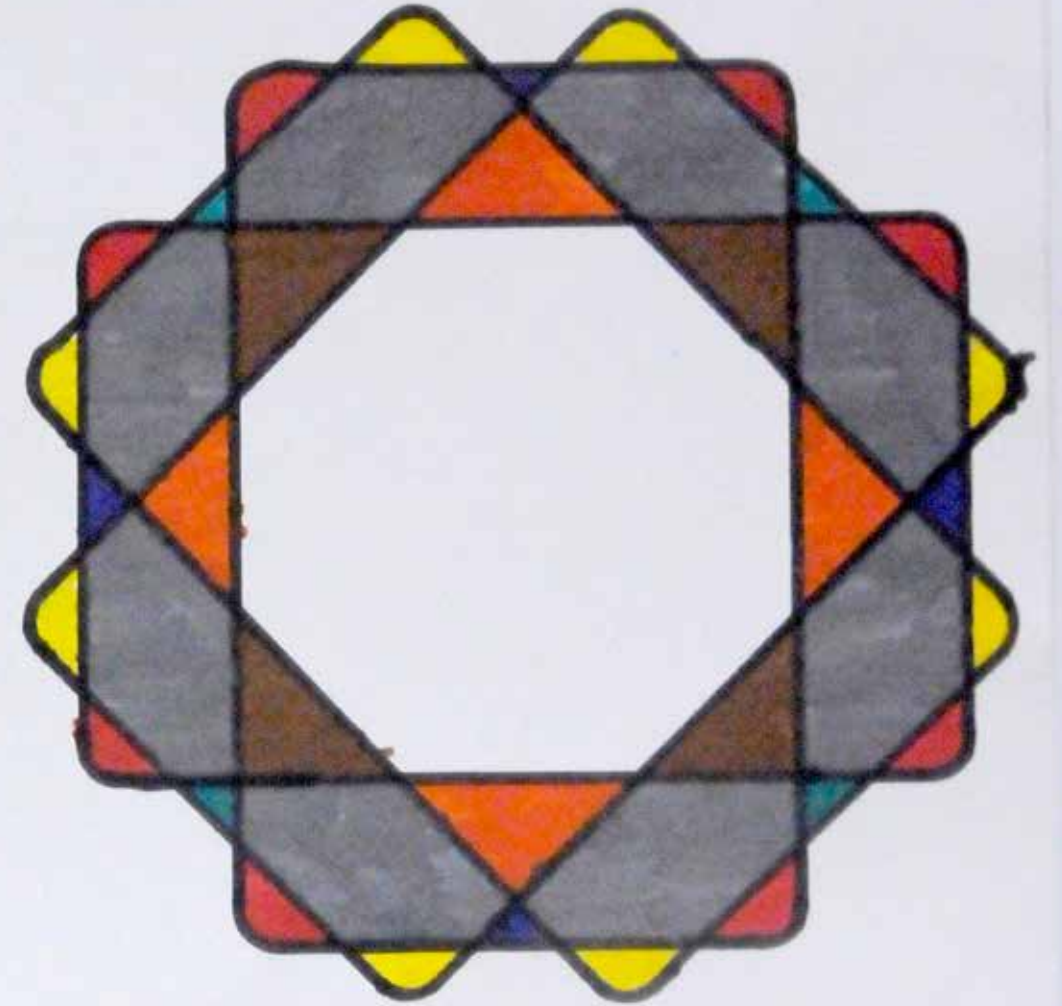

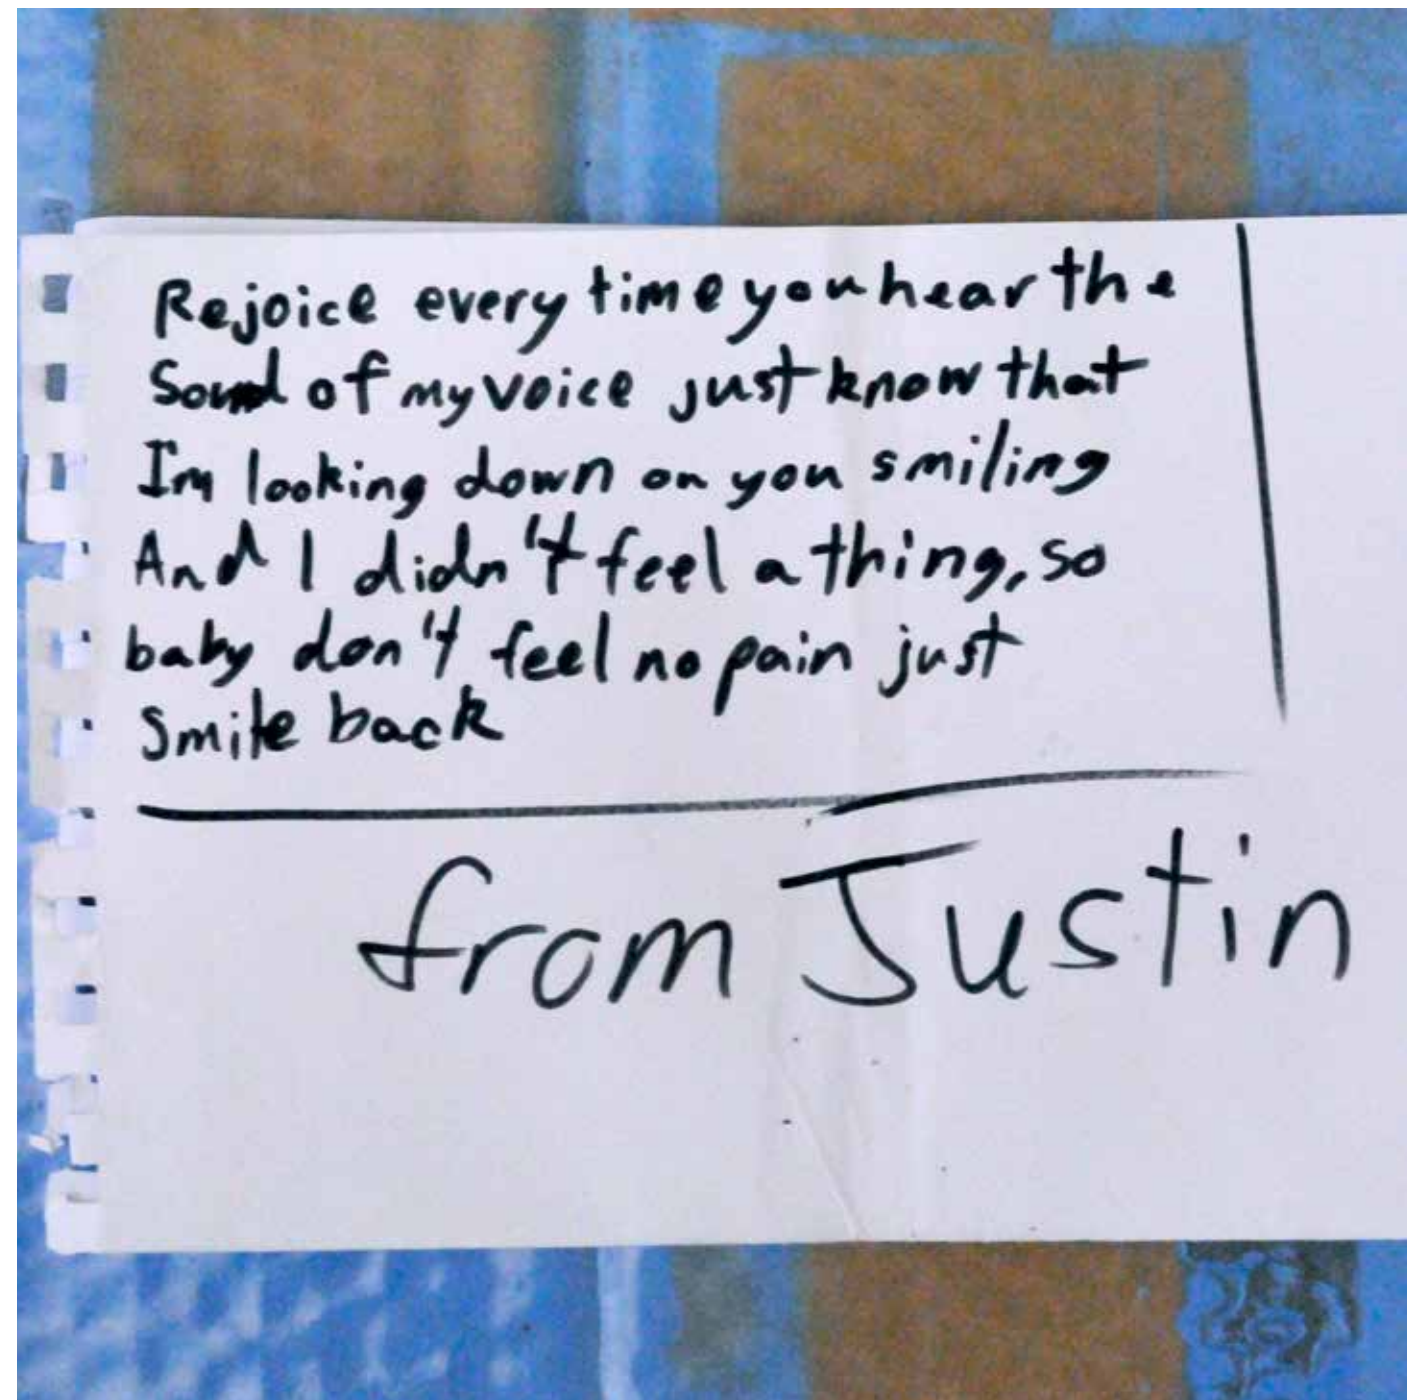

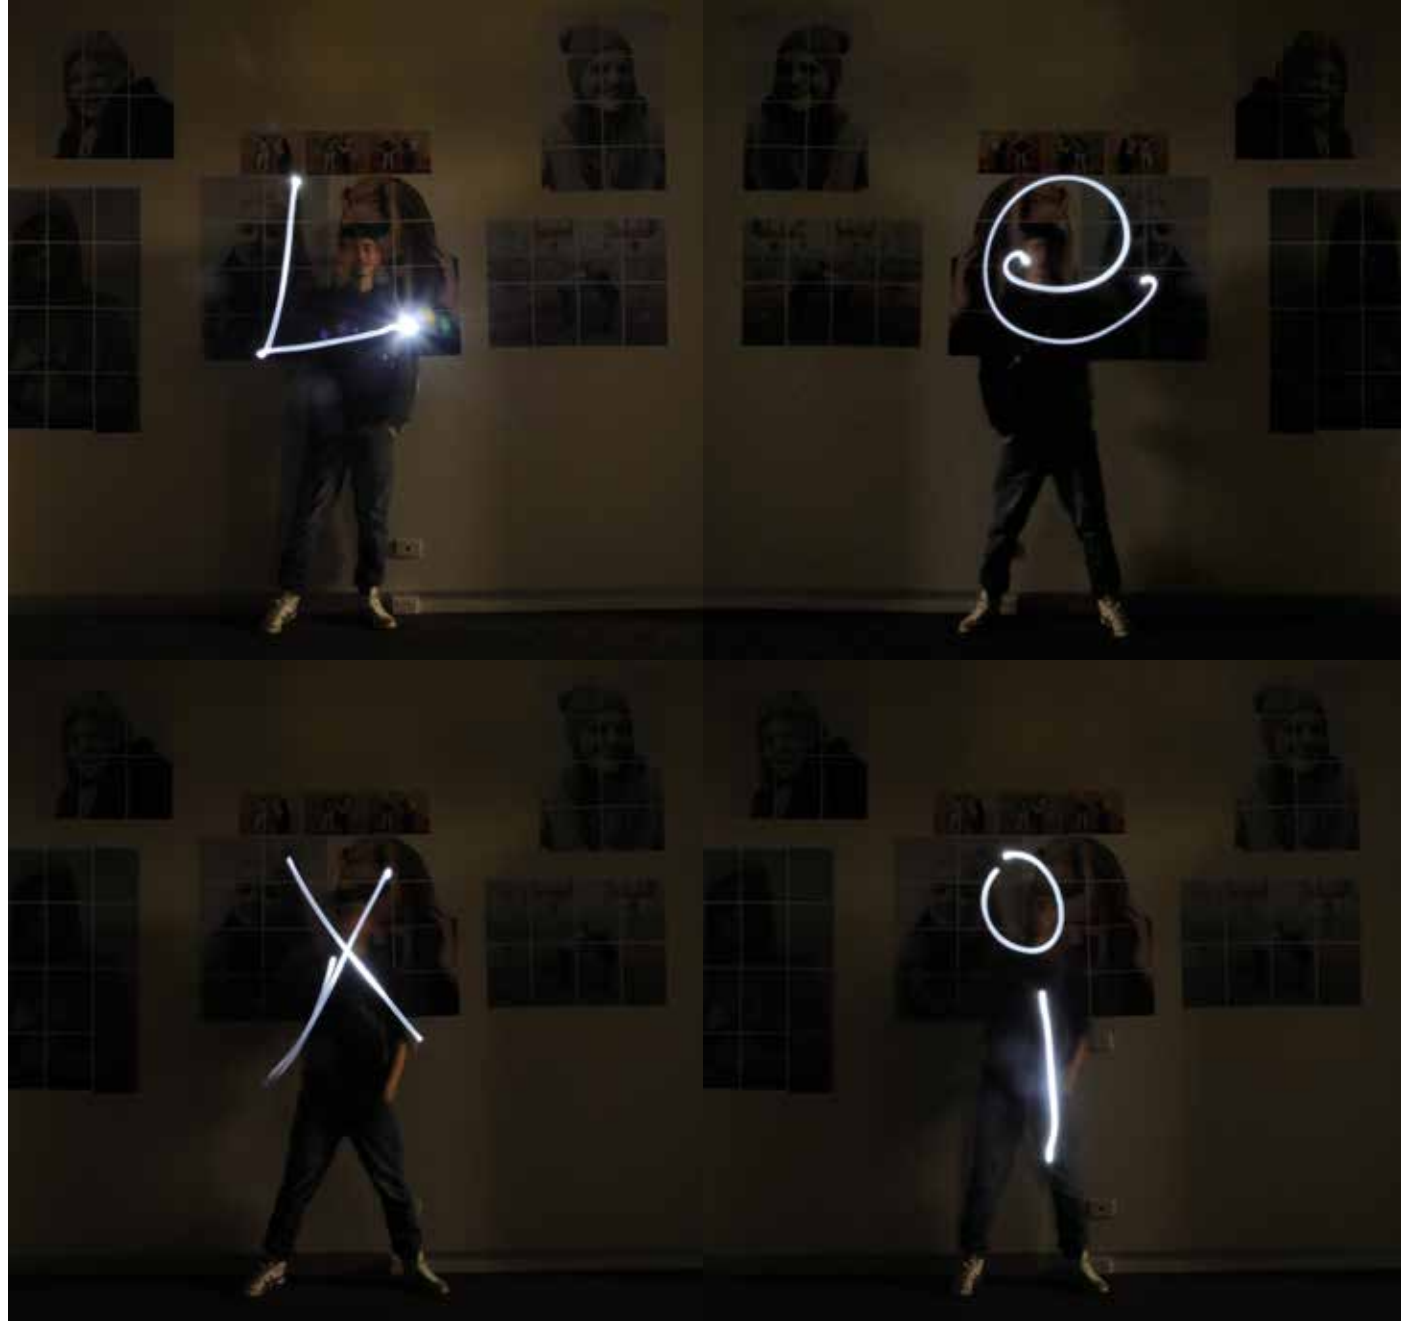

Hi,

I'm Justin.

My pictures are who I am.

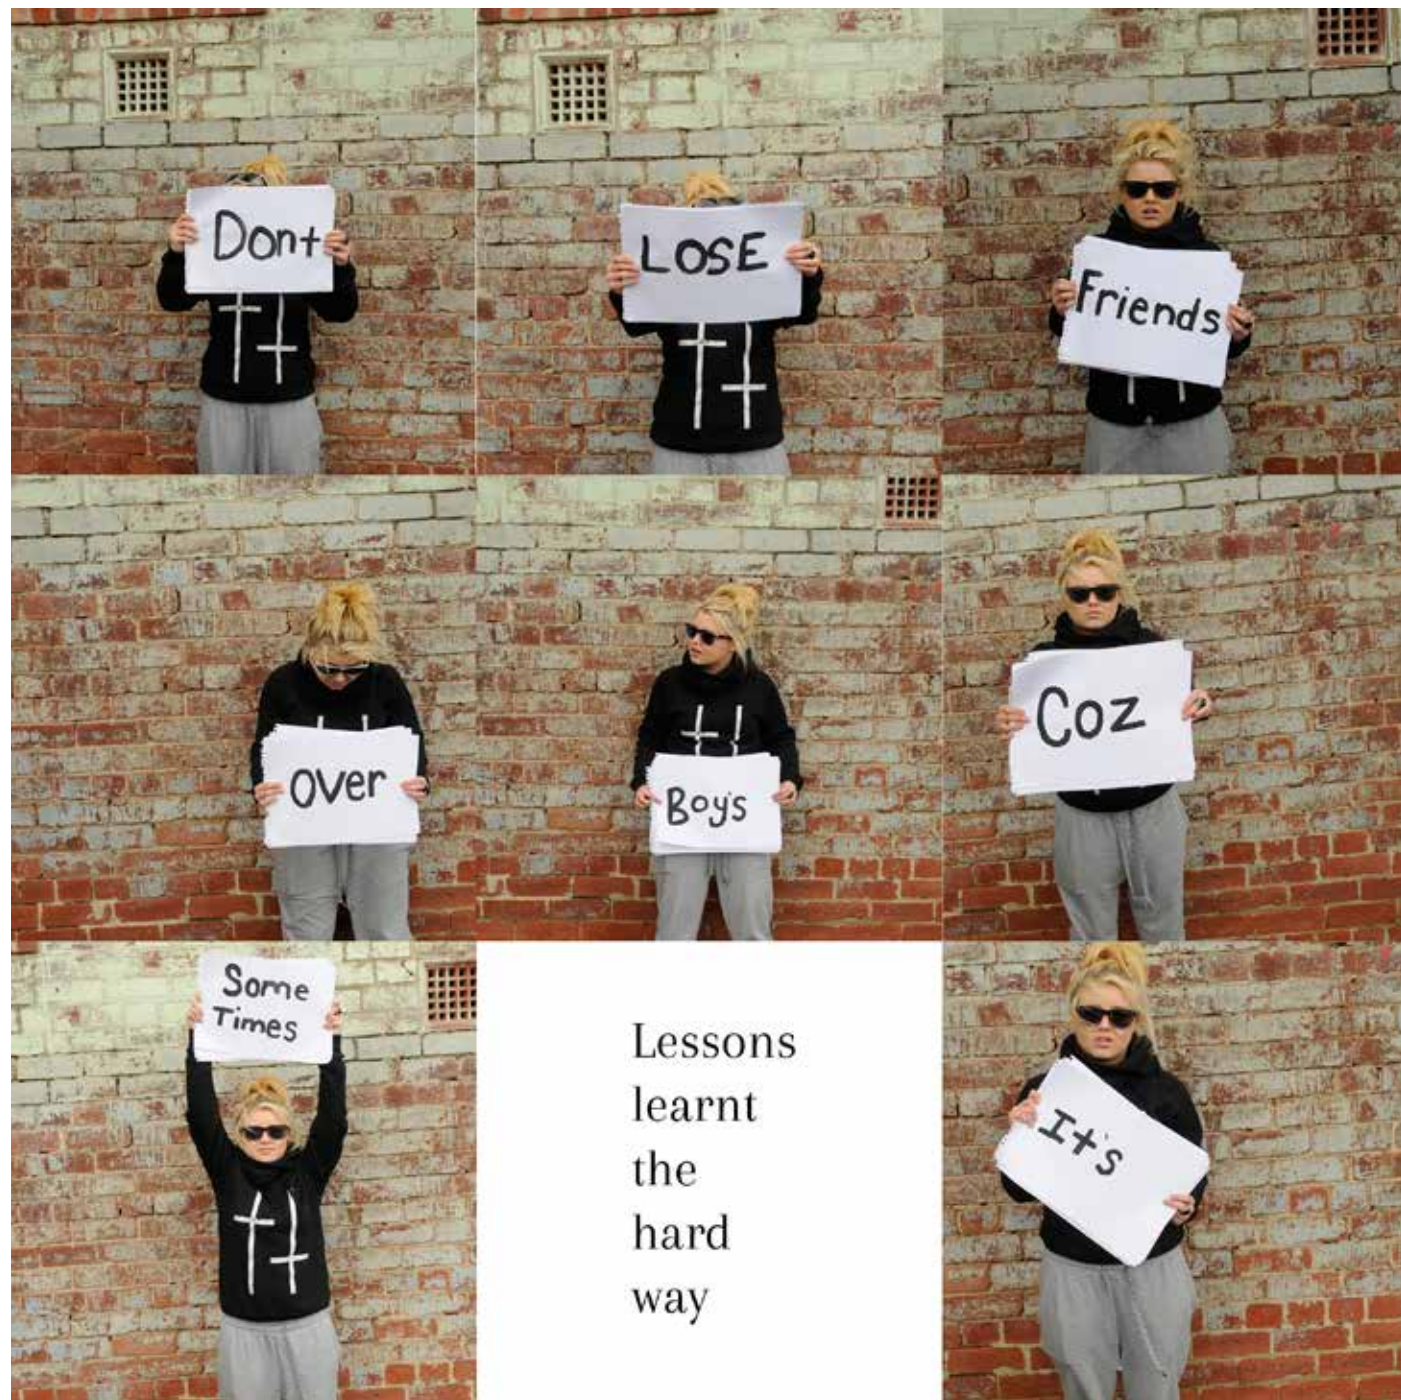

Hi,

My name's Alicia.

I'd do anything for my mates.

Chich.

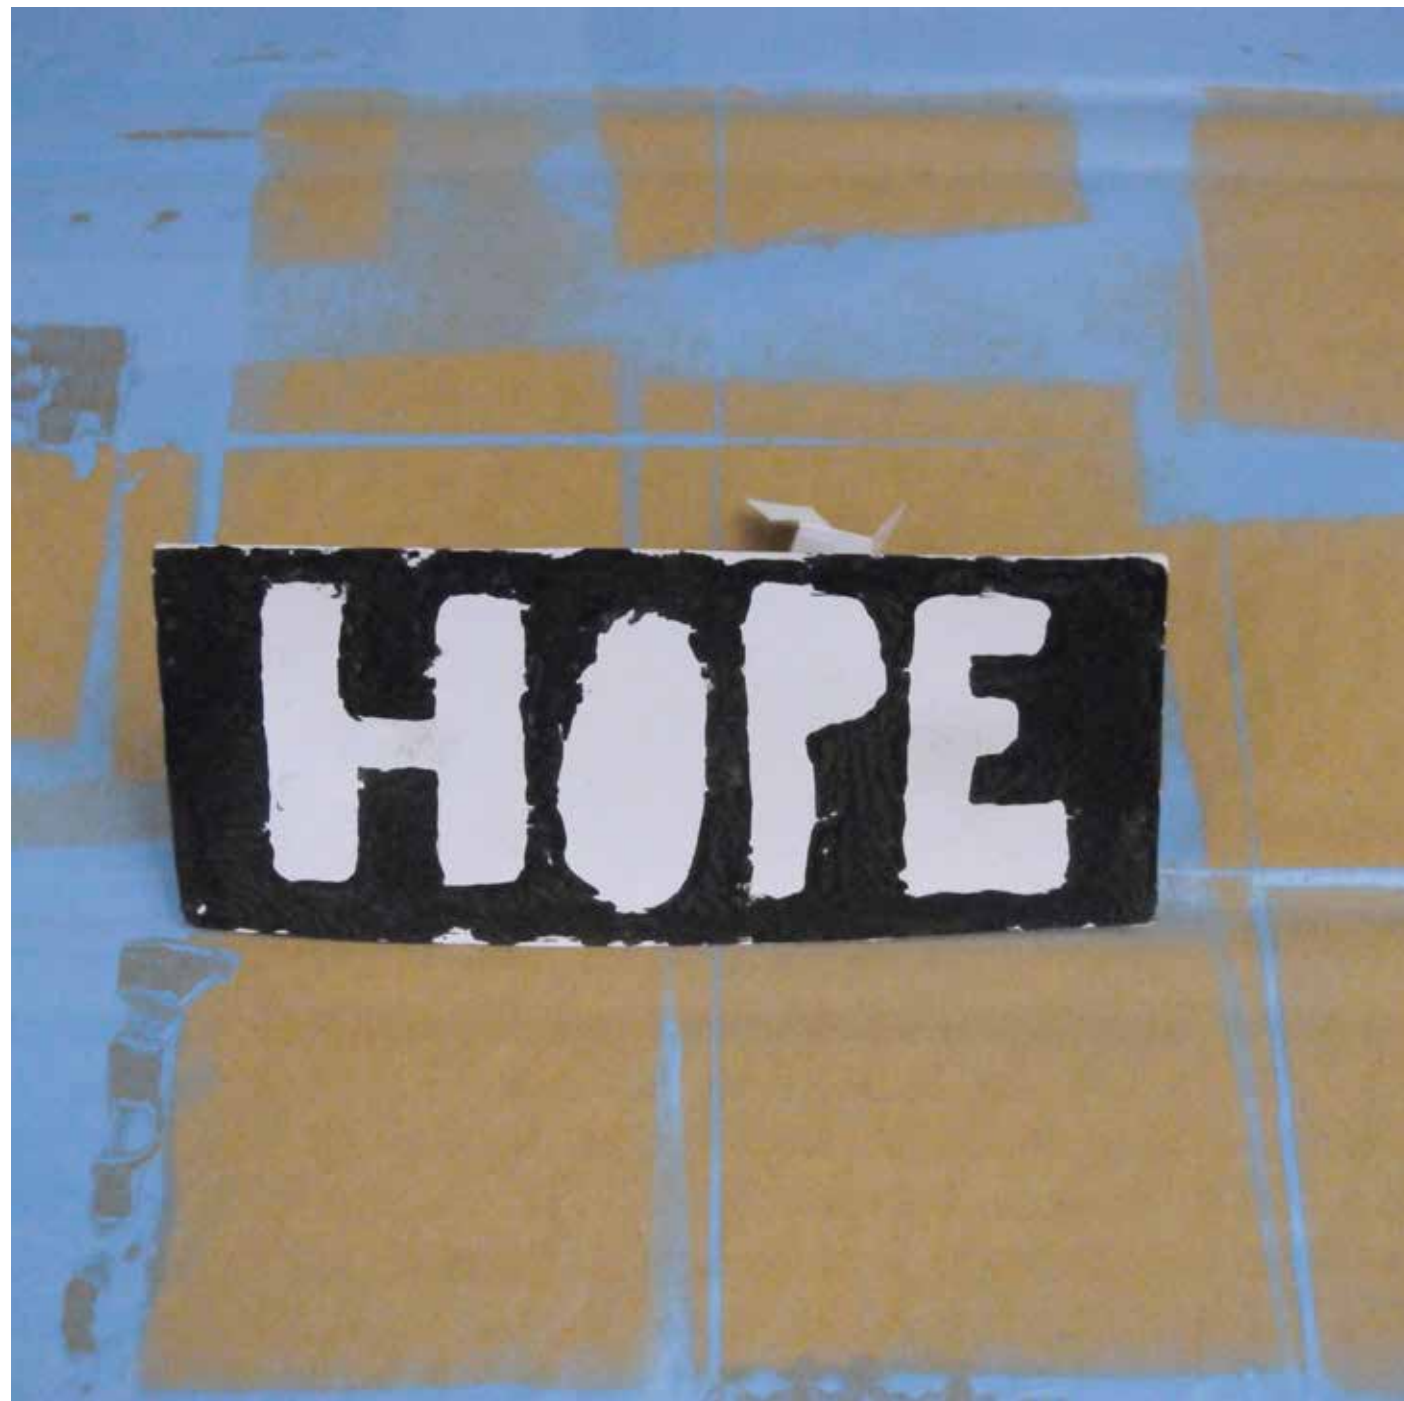

My Story 2-

for a few years now I've been battling with depression. It's a horrible thing, feeling hopeless and worthless, but with going through that I've learnt to overcome a lot of things. I've learnt to be more positive and have hope in all the things that I try to do. I was very close to giving up but I don't want to anymore, I want to keep trying and get through all the bad to see the good at the end.

The moral of the story is to have hope and to never, ever give up.

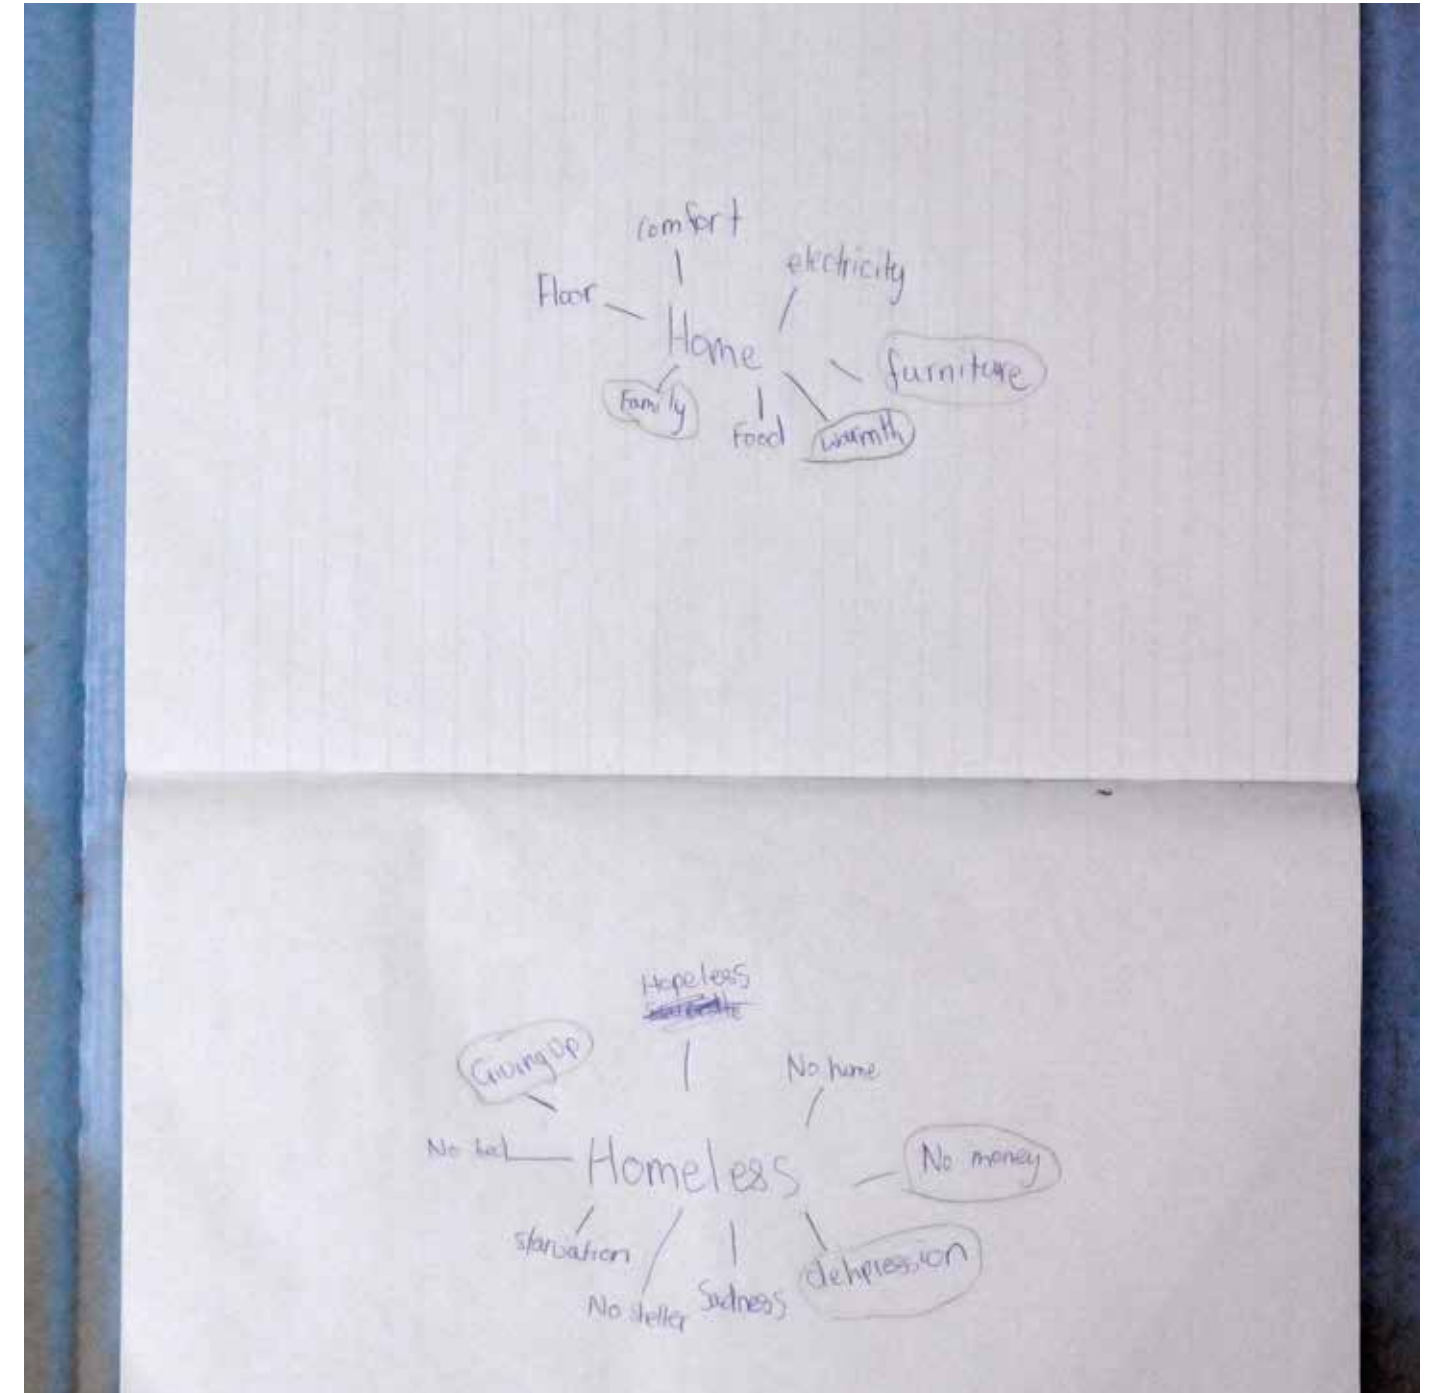

About me.

I like doing art, mostly sketching.

I like playing video games.

I like listening to music.

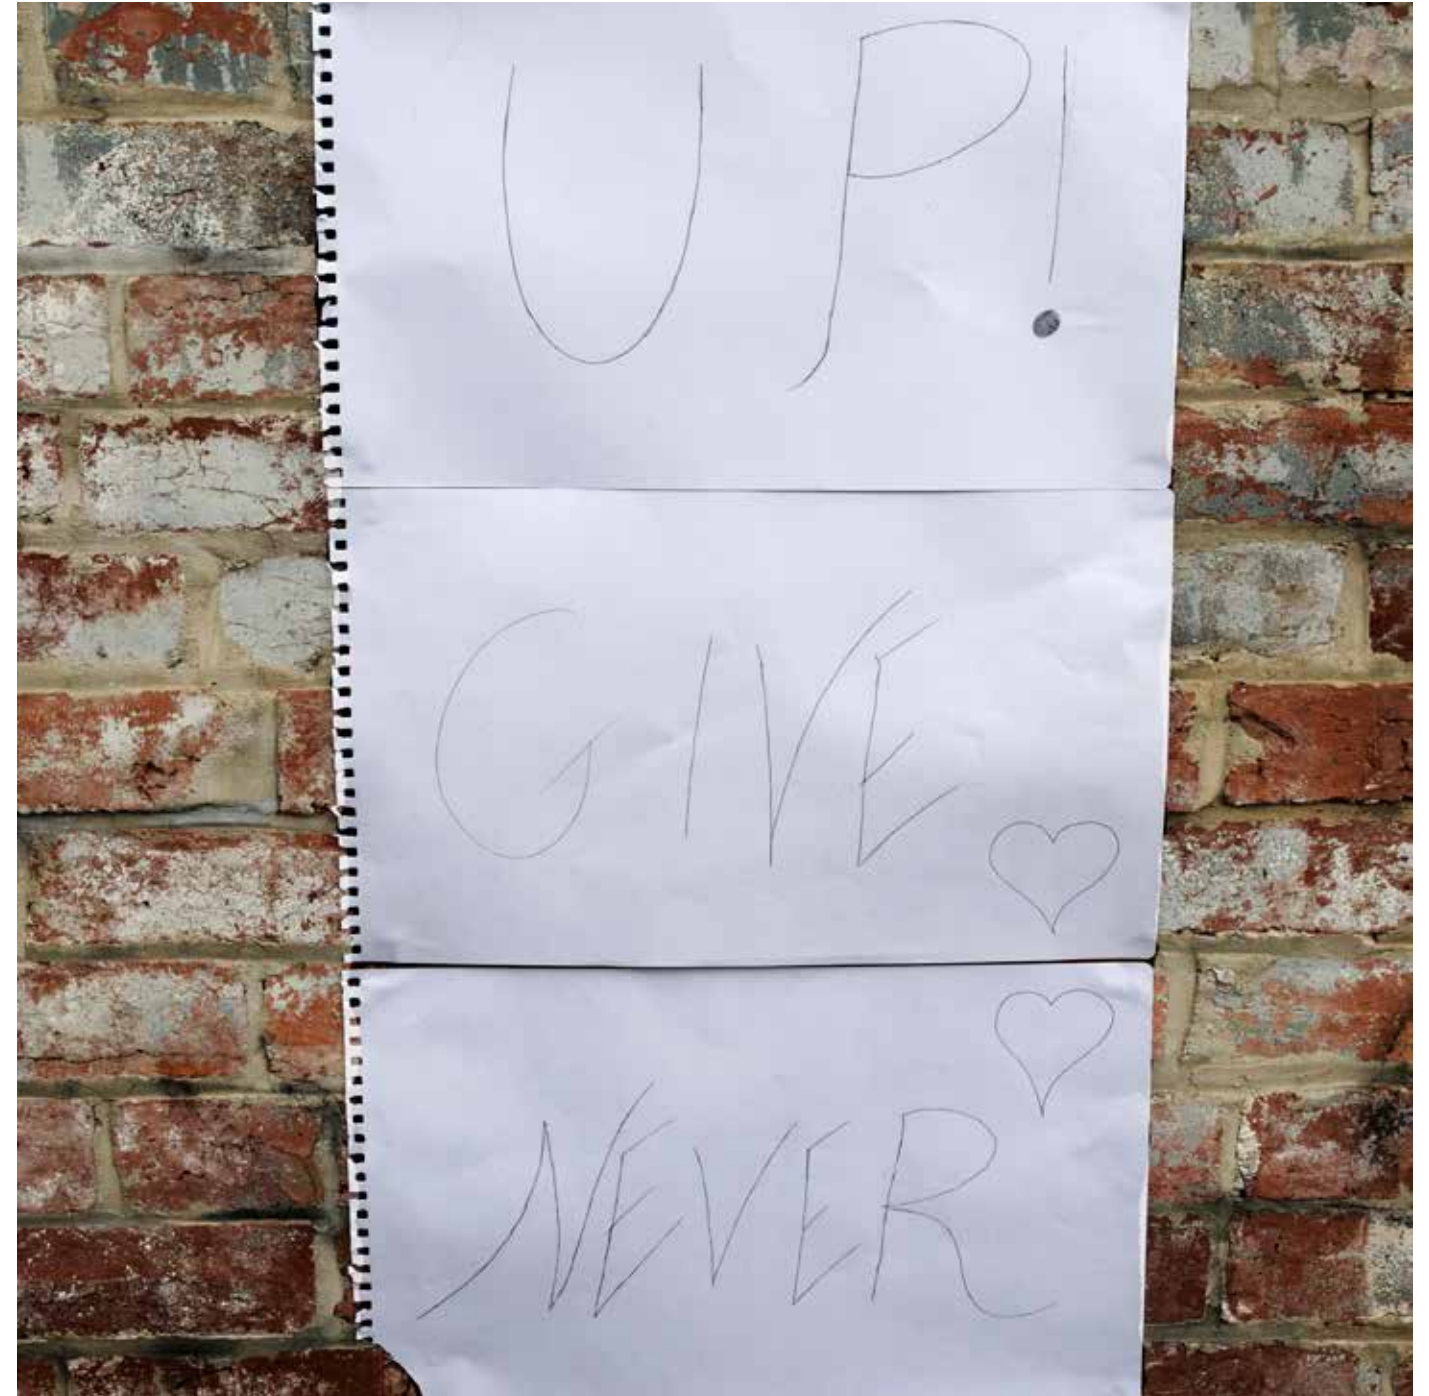

I am lazy.

And these children that you spit on,
As they try to change their worlds,
Are immune to your consultations,
They're quite aware of what they're going through.

David Bowie Changes

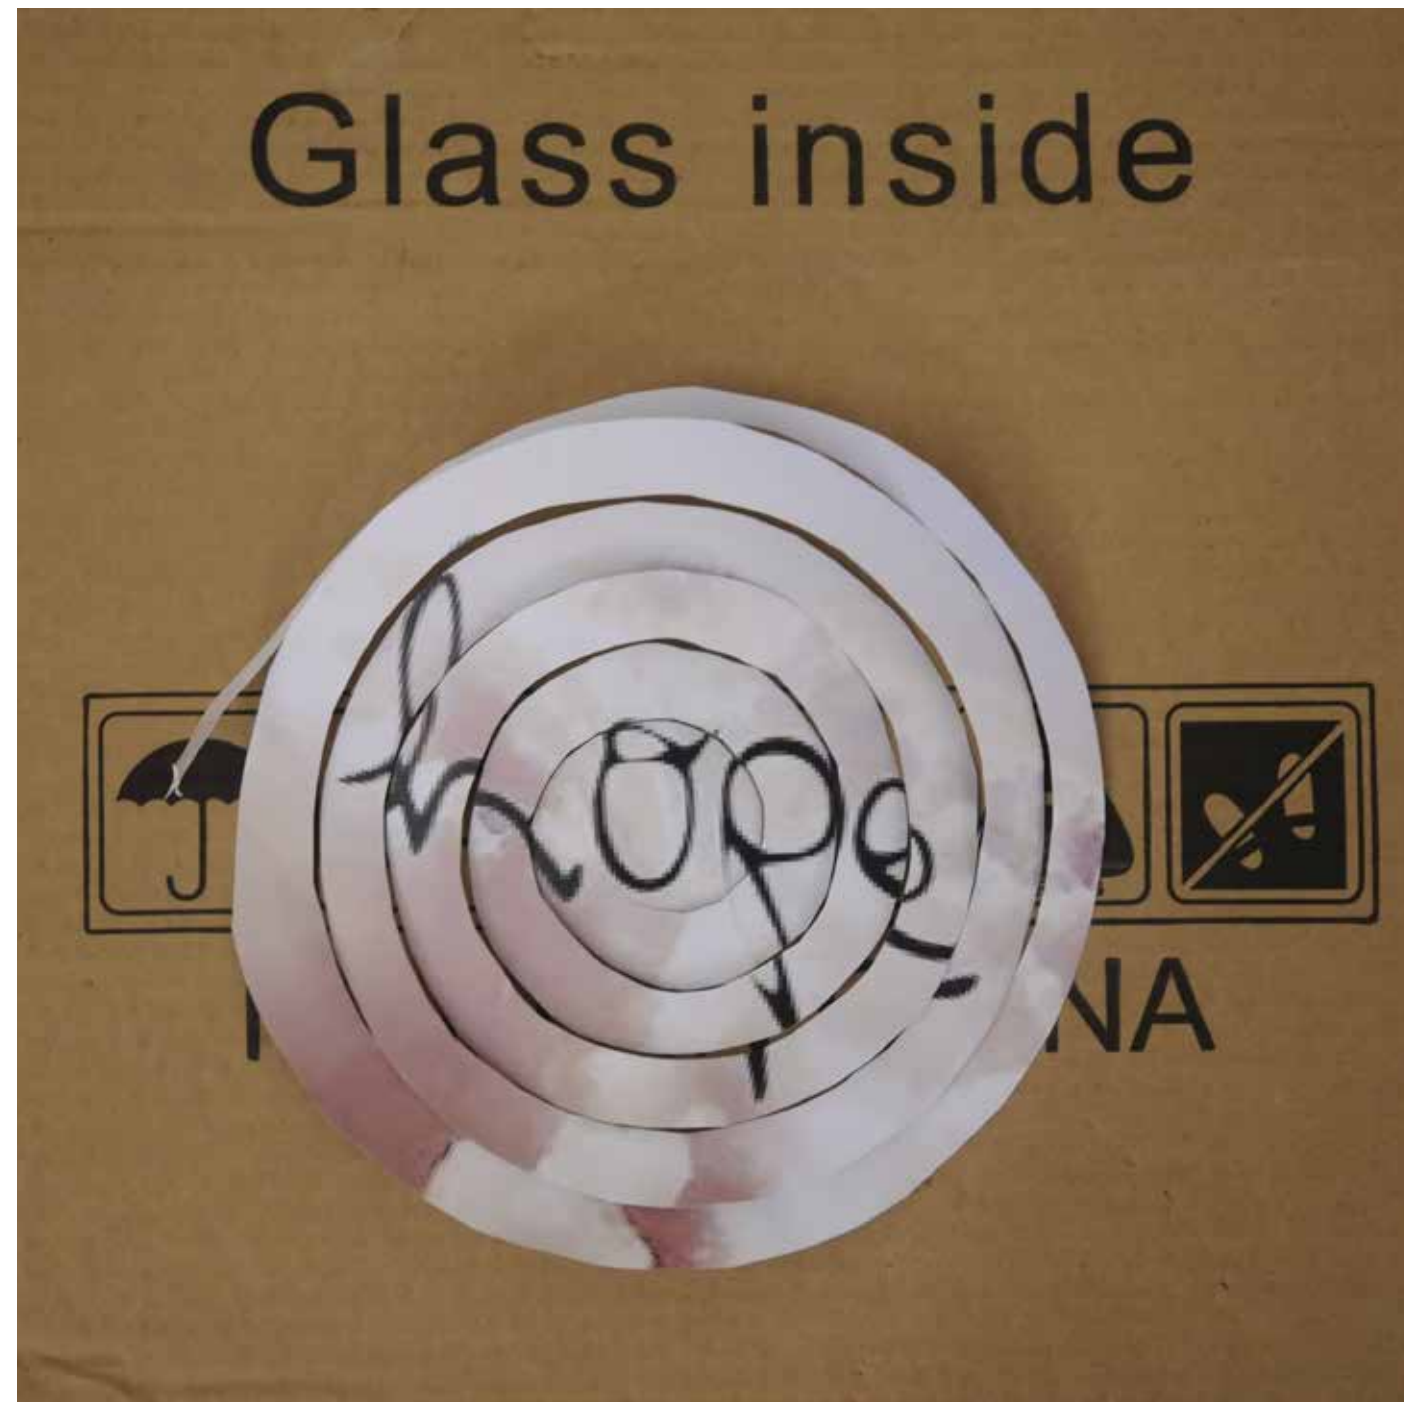

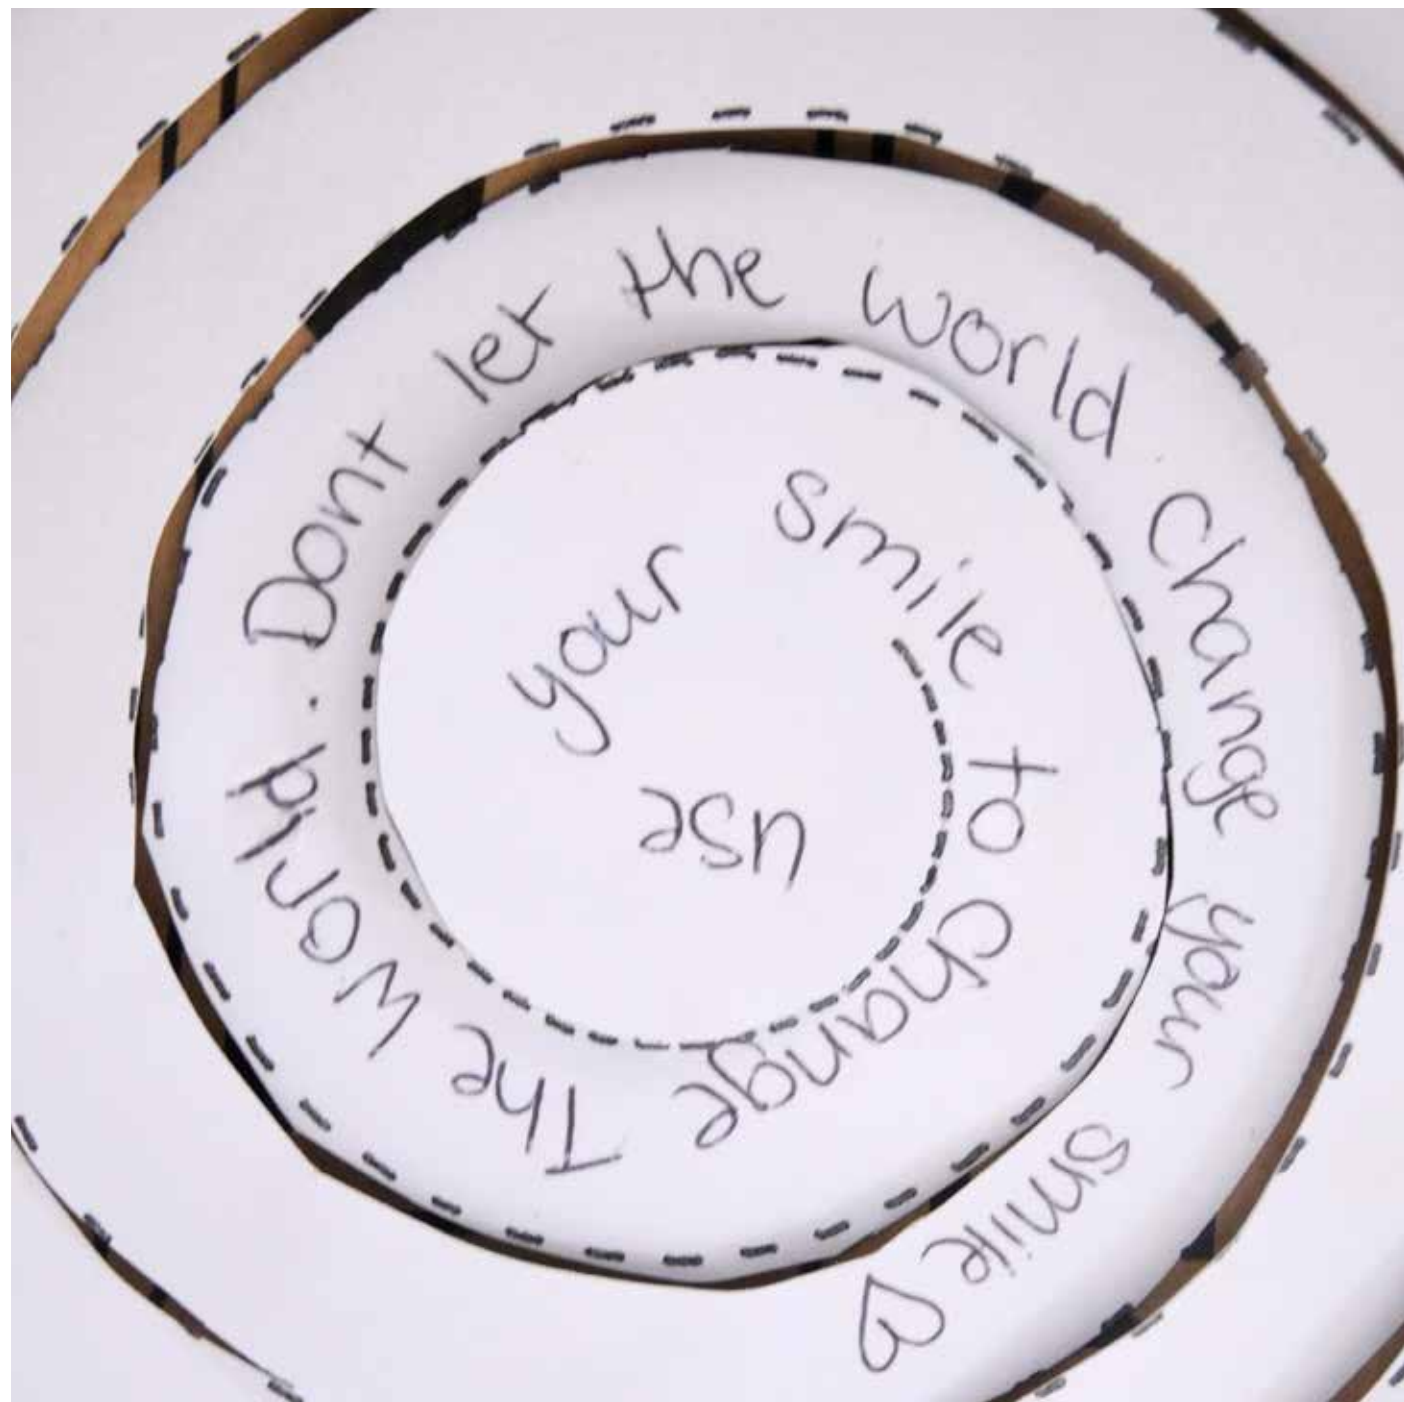

I've never understood
why people consider youth
a time of freedom and
joy. It's probably because they have forgotten their own.

Hi
I'm Corey.
I'm 16.
I love music and art.
I hope to one day be known as a musician whose music helps people through life's struggles and gives them what they needed all along.
I want to help people. I want to make a difference in this world.

I know, I know, I know that you've fallen

Get up, Get out of the hole that you've crawled in, don't waste your time, there's hope you can save yourself, one little word can break the spell.

Say no, to those artificial getaways,

No, to those chemicals that flood your veins.

You're damned if you don't, hope you can just say no.

John O'Z Hope.

I know, I know, I know that you're falling,

climbing to high, to fast and then stalling, you need to change, get out of your own way, you gotta find the will to stay.

Just say no.

Waking up By Jamestown Story.

My name is Hannah.
I'm pretty kicked back and love a good laugh.
Fun is the goal to happiness.

Woohoo!

A semi-colon represents a sentence the author could of ended but chose not to. The author is you and the sentence is your life.

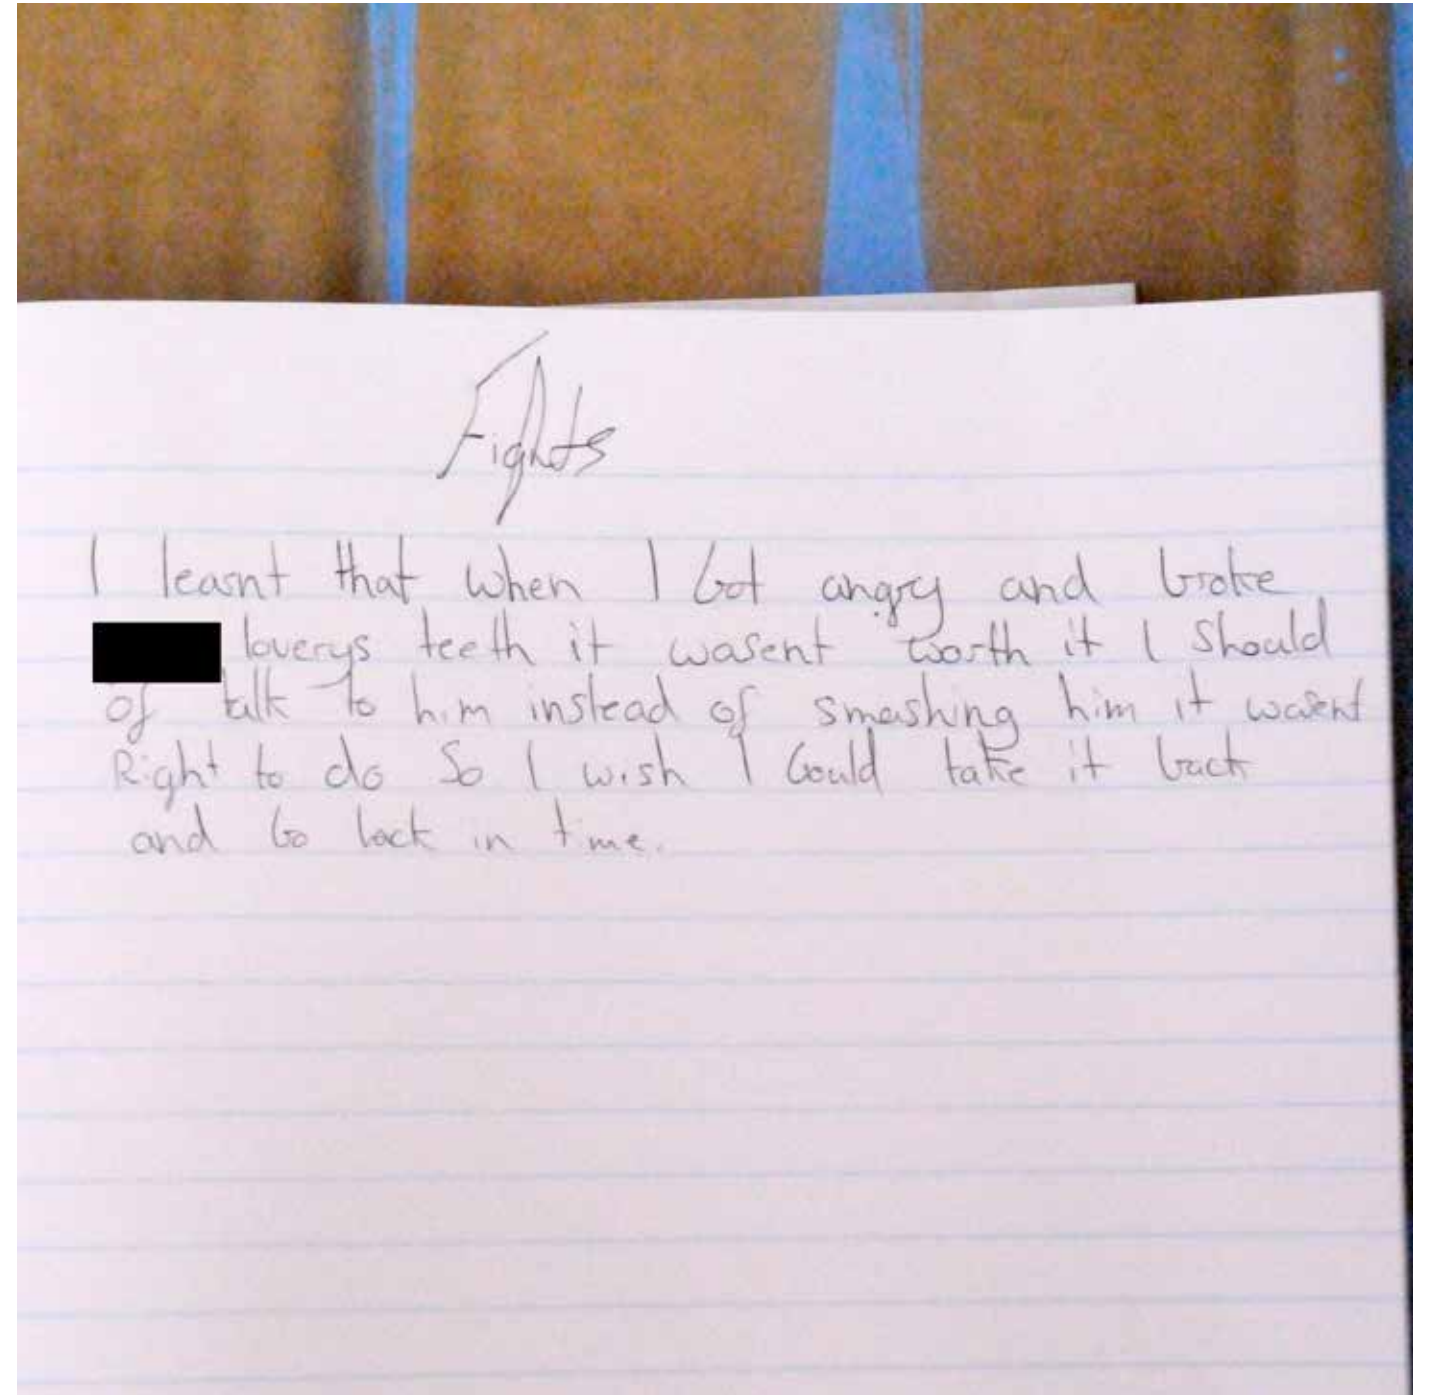

Hi.

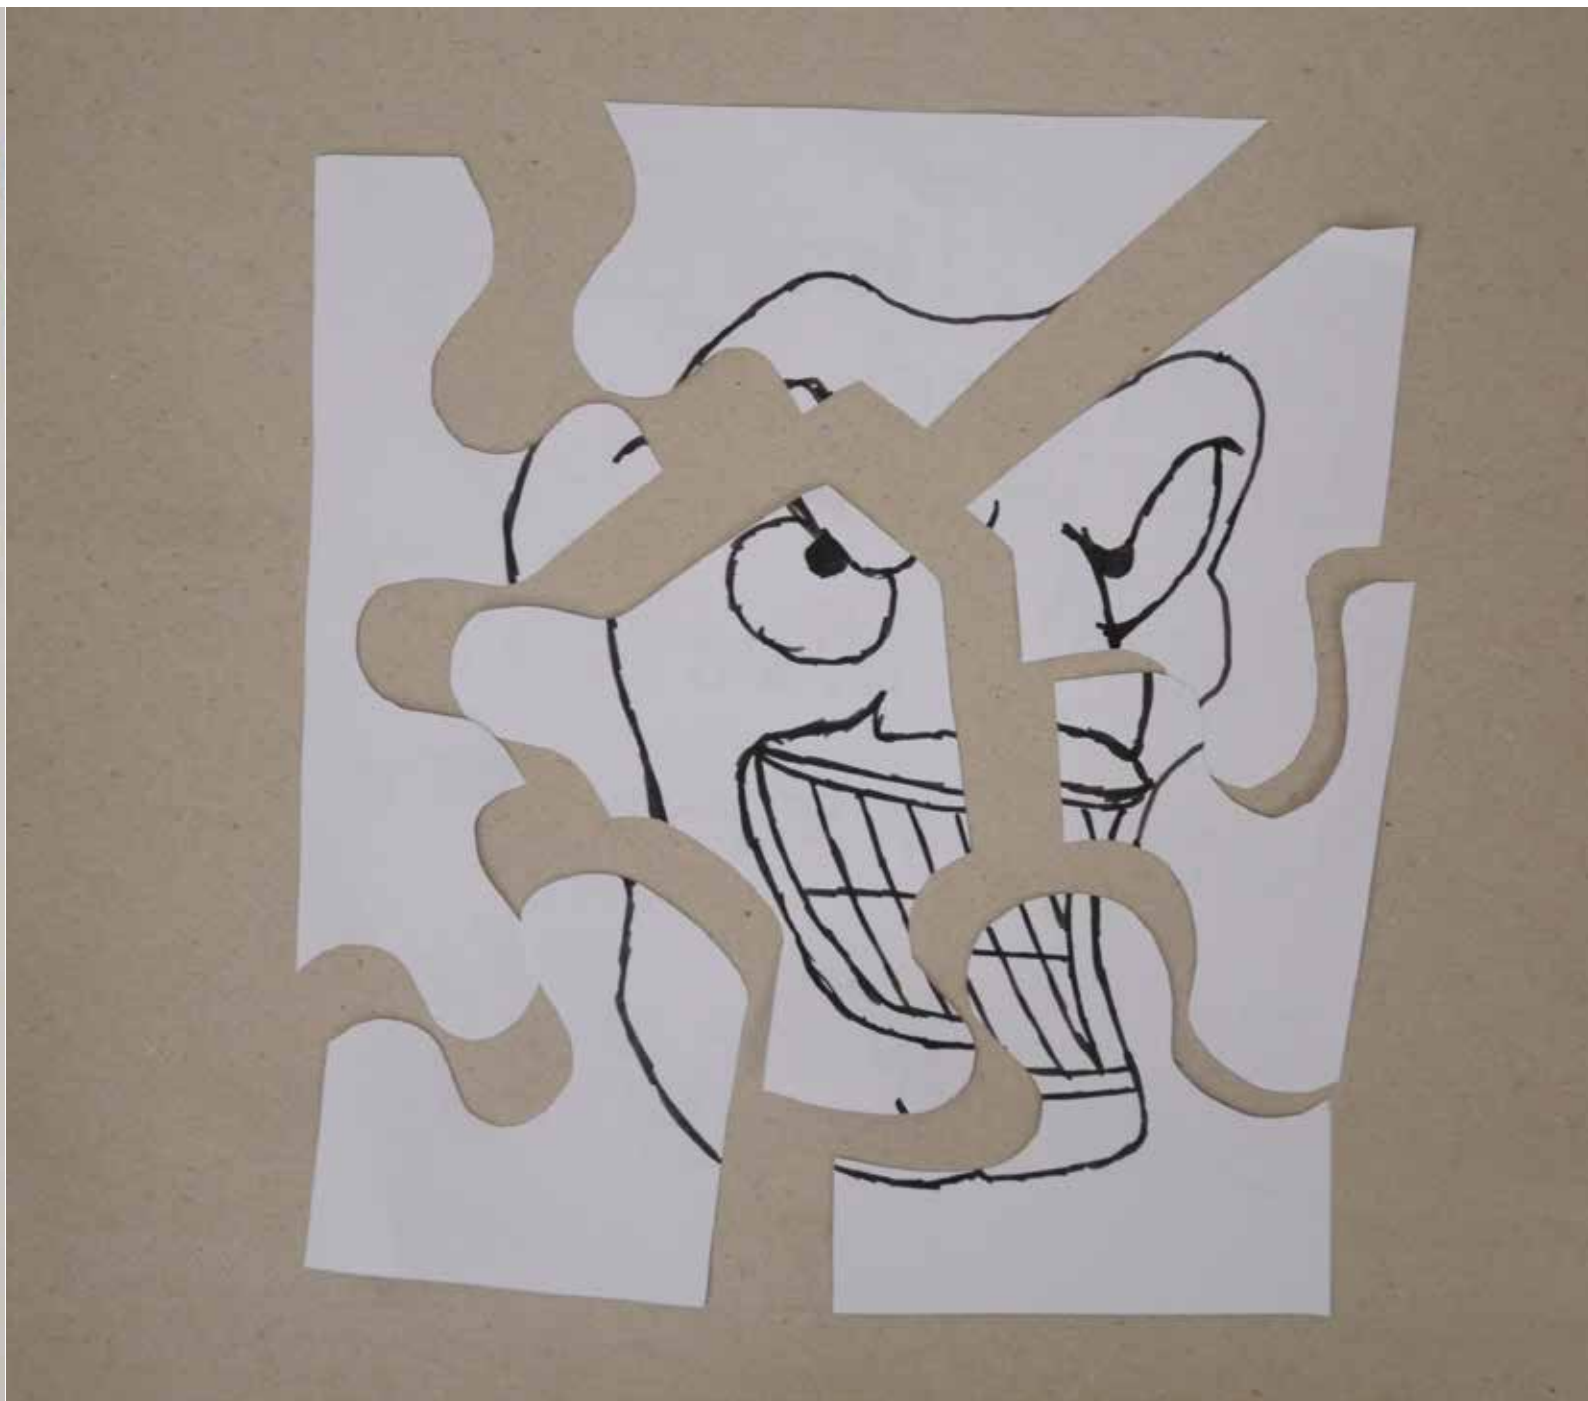

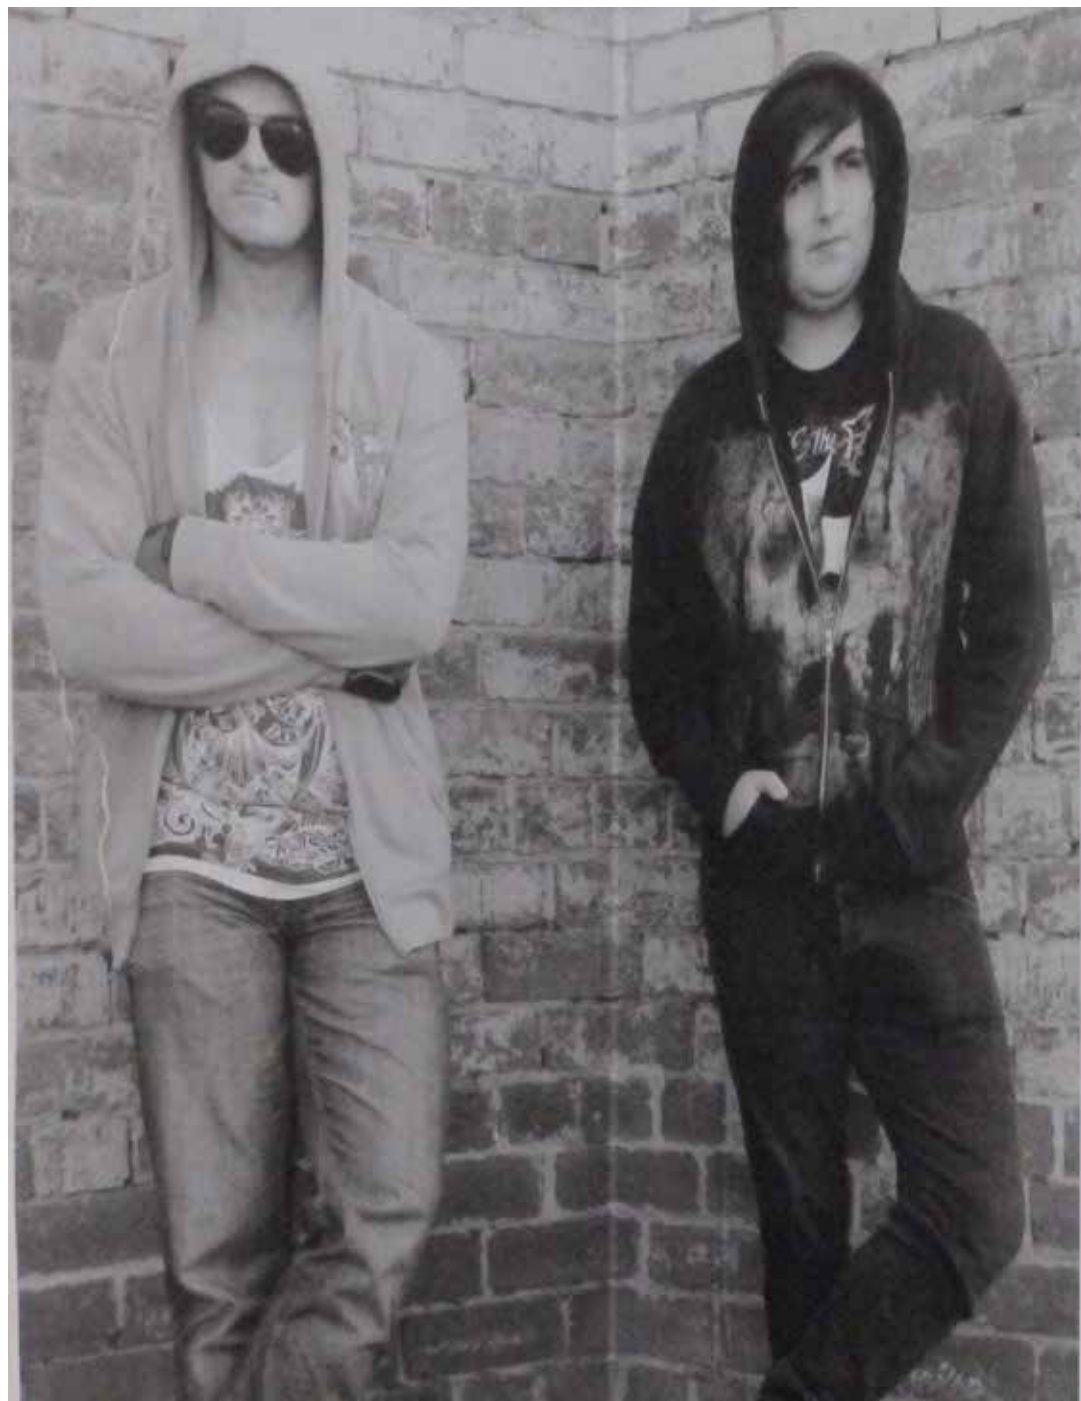

My name is Jo.

I like working in Sunshine as the students always teach me new slang.

I also like the pork rolls.

I'm Going Home 2 my Best Friend.
We are alike.
We think alike.
We dress the same.
We have parties every night.
We are crazy.
In our world everything is crazy!!!
We are lazy!!!
We have the same piercings & wear the same make-up.
PLAZA - SHOPPING - STEAL
Used to live in the same rooms.
Now we have separate rooms.
Every night is the Best night with her!!!

Notes

I think the youth is important because it's hard to be young and shy because it's the only time when you feel that way
